

ARTES

Benefits

By being a member of the ARTES Community, you may:

- participate in the ARTES fora and post your comments, show your own work, communicate insights, visions, news, write tips, scenarios of development of practices, techniques, add links to useful audio-visual materials and suggest any food for thought on the use of the arts for social inclusion and education;
- initiate a specific debate on any topic relevant to art as a vehicle for education and social inclusion for discussion on the platform;
- take part in any event animated by the ARTES core group members;
- use, adapt, develop any material collected in the ARTES Learning Paths;
- create Learning Paths on your own and upload them on the ARTES platform;
- contribute to build the ARTES Community of Practice identity and history through your active participation.